

Their name is Townsend.

Monday morn

Dear Billie

I sent the little package over for you as you requested to go down by mail, the evening of same day your note came, but Mr. S. was out and some stupid that he had left in charge said he did not know how much it ought to be so would not let it go, and Wash brought it back. The best I could do then was to send it over to go down by express first train next morn, and it may be lying at the Express Office now for aught I know. There is a little so might possibly interest you, so put it in. Thought I had heard you speak of the one armed conductor.

— At Red Bluff, Tuesday night, a notorious rough known as "Doc" Condon attacked and beat with a heavy cane a one-armed railroad conductor named Harry Barton, because he had recently ejected him from a train for having no ticket. Barton was quite seriously injured, and only his prompt arrest by the police prevented Condon from being invested in a suit of tar and feathers by the enraged citizens among whom the victim is very popular.

My principal object in writing now is to tell you for your encouragement that Mr. Lynch says you are doing splendidly.

That Mr. Winton & Mr. Blawie both say so, and are very much pleased. His language was very strong. Of course Papa is in high feather about it. We had a lonesome time here Sat, and Sabbath Did not see or hear from Charlie. Gusie is going down to Oakland this week, perhaps to day. Had some thought of bringing Ben back with him.

I suppose you saw Annie and know more about her than I do. I wait with fear and anxiety the further opinion of the Dr. and have but one consolation about it, and that is the thought that our darling is not in his hands, but in those of our Heavenly Father.

Shall be glad to see you home next week.

Mama.

Mrs. Smith professes herself delighted that you are teaching at Hayward. Says she had two nephews in your room,
